Carmen Oriani has been an associate at the Rome office of Ughi e Nunziante since 2002.

After graduating with top marks at the University of Naples Federico II in 1991, she gained experience in a more traditional law firm in Naples. In 1997 she began to work for an important boutique firm with office in Rome, where she mostly dealt with procedural, commercial and bankruptcy law.

Among other things, she specialized in Economics and EU law (University of Naples Federico II).

In 1997 she was admitted to the bar in Naples.

Carmen is fluent in Italian and Spanish.
