Floriana joined Ughi e Nunziante in Rome in 2016, following ten years of experience as a labor law expert in primary firms such as Lablaw and Salonia e Associati.

She gained extensive experience in labor law assisting clients on all issues connected with subordinate employment contracts, and represents companies on labor law issues connected to acquisitions and business transfers.

After graduating, Floriana was admitted to the bar in 2004, and attended the advanced course in labor law, trade unions and social security organized by the AGI (the association for Italian labor law attorneys), which she is a member of.

She has acted as speaker at conferences and training courses in labor law.

She speaks Italian and English.
