

Luca Corabi De Marchi

E l.corabi@unlaw.it

P +39 02 762171

F +39 02 784140

Via Zenale, 19 - 20121 Milan

Expertise:

M&A - Private Equity

Corporate

Contract Law

Litigation and Arbitration

Employment and Human Resources

Real estate

Private clients

Qualifications:

1991

Admitted to the bar in Italy

2011

Admitted to the bar in Switzerland

2004

Admitted to the Supreme Court in Italy

Training:

1983

J.D. - University of Milan

1986

Master of Laws (LL.M) in private international law and comparative law (King's College of London)

Publications:

"Franchising: La difficile convivenza della rule of reason con l'illegalità per sé nello sviluppo della giurisprudenza comunitaria" in Diritto comunitario e degli scambi internazionali, no. 4, 1986.

"Mercato dell'alluminio e violazione della concorrenza" in Diritto comunitario e degli scambi internazionali, no. 1/2, 1987.

"Accordi di franchising e regole di concorrenza CEE" in Diritto comunitario e degli scambi internazionali, no. 1/2, 1988.

"Direct Approach. The Role of Independent Directors in Italian Listed Companies" (In Brief, June 2004).

Associations:

British Italian Society

Swiss Chamber of Commerce in Italy

American Counsel Association

Languages:

Italian, English, French, German,

Luca joined the Milan office of Ughi e Nunziante as partner in 2019, after over 30 years of experience in prominent Italian law firms.

Luca's practice focuses on corporate law, M&A, commercial contracts, real estate law, employment matters, tax and trusts. He also advises clients in the management of generational handovers.

Luca was admitted to the bar in Italy and Switzerland. He obtained his degree in International Law at the University of Milan and won the “Antonio Leoni” prize for the best dissertation on peace and international security. He subsequently obtained a Master of Laws (LL.M) in private international law and comparative law from King’s College in London.

He has been Honorary Legal Adviser to the British Consulate General in Milan since 1998.

He is fluent in English, French, Italian and German.